GHANA WINS IN PARIS!

The Ghana cookery book, published in new edition by Jeppestown received a “Special Award” of the Jury” at the Gourmand World Cookbook Awards in Paris on February 11.

The Gourmand Awards are the ultimate competition in the sector, with 136 countries participating this year.

This book was originally compiled by the British Red Cross Society in 1933. The revised edition of 3221 pages of 2007 includes the editing, arrangement notes and introduction of David Saffery.

The book will be exhibited at the Paris Cookbook Fair , February 12-15, 2010, and it is invited at the Cape Town Book Fair after the Football World Cup.
