

THE GOURMAND AWARDS
PARIS, FEBRUARY 11,2010
LE CENT QUATRE

Press Release, February 11,2010

KOREA WINS IN PARIS ;

The book “The Beauty of Korean Foods” received two awards at the Gourmand World Cookbook.

The French translation “La beauté de la Cuisine Coroeenne” received the “Special Award” of the Jury. Translator Li Hong received the award from Edouard Cointreau, founder of the awards, and President of the Jury.

The book also received an award for the translation to English by Kiyung Ham and Richard Harris.

The translators are credited on the cover, which is very rare. The original text is by the institute of traditional Korean food, with principal researcher and directo Sookja Yoon.

This important book was published in August 2008 by Hollym as part of the Drive of Korean Government to standardize the recipes of the selected 100 Korean foods. It introduces Korean Food to foreigners with internationally accessible recipes.

The Gourmand World Cookbook Awards already rewarded three years ago the book published by Le Cordon Bleu Cooking School, with the adaptation of Kimchi to Western foods.
